

COP 19 Side Event

Squaring the Circle of Mitigation Adequacy and Equity - Options and Perspectives

Monday, 18 November 2013; 16.45 - 18.15

Room Wroclaw

The core issue for the 2015 agreement is defining enhanced action in ways that maximise participation and ambition on the basis of equity. This event will survey the options that have so far been tabled by Parties and in the literature and discuss their respective advantages and disadvantages.

Programme:

Introduction and Facilitation:

Niclas Höhne, Ecofys

Options for the spectrum of commitments

Wolfgang Sterk, Wuppertal Institute

Maximising equity, ambition and participation

Marion Vieweg, Climate Analytics

Citizens' perceptions of distributional justice and trust in international climate policy - empirical insights from China, Germany and the US

Joachim Schleich, Fraunhofer ISI / Grenoble Ecole de Management

Discussants

Harald Winkler, Energy Research Centre, University of Cape Town

Farhana Yamin, Chatham House

Contact:

Wolfgang Sterk, Wuppertal Institute, wolfgang.sterk@wupperinst.org